This policy also covers allegations by persons seeking or receiving Board services as described herein.

D. Limitations: Nothing in this policy is intended nor shall be construed to create a private right of action against the Board or any of its employees. Furthermore, no part of this policy shall be construed to create contractual or other rights or expectations. Nothing herein is intended to affect the right of any person to make a charge of discrimination, retaliation or sexual harassment at any agency with jurisdiction over such claims.

E. Guidelines: The EOCO Manager shall establish guidelines which include procedures necessary to implement the requirements of this policy and shall make them available to interested persons. Guidelines shall include complaint forms which must be signed by the complainant, timelines for initiation and completion of an investigation, the creation and maintenance of a record-keeping system for all complaints, investigations, findings, and action(s) taken. The procedures shall ensure that the EOCO's records pertaining to its investigations will, to the extent possible, be kept confidential and that employees and students are afforded their rights provided for under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

III. CONDUCT PROHIBITED

A. Discrimination:

1. Definition - As used in this policy, discrimination means treating an individual adversely in employment or academic decisions based on race, color, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, or disability; or maintaining facially neutral policies, practices, or requirements that have a negative effect on employment or academic opportunities of protected groups without a legitimate nondiscriminatory reason. Acts of verbal, nonverbal, or physical aggression, intimidation, or hostility based on sex, but not involving conduct of a sexual nature, may constitute a form of sex discrimination.

2. Conduct Prohibited - Employment-related decisions, including but not limited to decisions relating to recruitment, hiring, promotion, transfers, benefits and any other terms and conditions of employment, will be made without regard to the employee's or applicant's race, color, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion or disability. Similarly, all education-related programs and activities, including but not limited to admissions, financial aid, academic programs and extracurricular activities, will be administered without regard to the student's or applicant's race, color, national origin, sex gender, sexual orientation, age, religion or disability.

3. Reporting - The procedures for reporting claims of discrimination are set out in Section IV of this policy.

(ii) when submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis of any employment, educational or service decision affecting the individual; or

(iii) when such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with the work performance of an employee, a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an education program or activity or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or learning environment.

2. Conduct Prohibited - Covered individuals shall not sexually harass another while employed, working for, attending or participating in district endeavors. There is a broad range of conduct which can, in certain circumstances, be considered a violation of this policy. Employees who become involved in such a relationship must communicate this fact to their principal or department head. The principal or department head will confer with the EOCO Manager to evaluate and determine an appropriate resolution in compliance with this policy. One or both employees may have to seek other employment, as the Board is under no obligation to reassign one or both employees. Romantic relationships between Board employees where there is no supervisory affiliation are not prohibited by this policy. Conflicts of interest involving a Board employee and their spouse, domestic partner or relative(s) are addressed in the Board's Ethics Policy.

D. Conduct with Students: Romantic or sexual conduct between school employees, contractors, consultants, vendors or volunteers and Chicago Public School students is strictly prohibited. In such instances, employees shall also complete the mandatory reporting requirements identified for suspected child abuse/neglect by school personnel set out in the Board's Policy on Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect.

E. Retaliation: Retaliation against any person for having made a complaint or report of discrimination or sexual harassment, or participating or aiding in an investigation of discrimination or sexual harassment, is strictly prohibited. Any person who believes that he or she has been subjected to retaliation should report the retaliatory conduct to the EOCO manager. Acts of retaliation shall subject an employee to discipline up to and including dismissal.

IV. REPORTING PROCEDURES

Timely Reporting: Complaints of discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation or other violations of this policy shall be made within 90 days of the discrimination, sexual harassment or retaliation complained of. The 90 day reporting requirement shall be strictly applied, except when the EOCO Manager determines, in his/her discretion that extraordinary circumstances exist and authorizes a waiver of the 90 day reporting requirement.

Nothing in this policy prevents anyone from submitting a report of discrimination, sexual harassment, retaliation or non-compliance with this policy of which they have witnessed or have knowledge of.

If a student, parent or guardian making the complaint feels the intervention or consequence rendered by the principal is insufficient to address the discrimination, sexual harassment or retaliation, he or she may appeal the matter within 15 calendar days to the EOCO Manager. The EOCO Manager shall render a final determination in accordance with the timeline and procedures set out in the Guidelines to this policy. The EOCO Manager shall also ensure that the affected students are afforded their rights provided for under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.
